Read together 1 Corinthians 15:1-11

- What is Paul trying to "remind" the Corinthian Christians about?
- What does Paul mean by the present-tense verb, "being saved", when referring to the gospel (v.2)?
- Can you identify some of the "facts" of this "gospel" (v.3-8)?
- What difference did the gospel make to Paul's life (v.9-10)?

Watch the video entitled "Session 3: Having a Gospel-Centred Vision".

A Gospel-Centred Vision:

- 1. Determines our priorities.
- 2. Shapes the questions we ask.
- 3. Shapes the tone and culture of our church.
- 4. Monitors our church health.

Reflection Questions:

- 1. Would you say that the gospel is driving your theological vision for ministry? Why?
- 2. If you were to look at your church's annual budget, the activities of your ministries or your location, do they show a focus on "gospel work"? Does the gospel determine your practical ministry priorities?
- 3. How would you evaluate the "tone" of your church culture? Does your church reflect the dominant tone of hope, joy and thankfulness that comes from a deep-understanding of the gospel? How can a "gospel tone" be spurred on?

Theological Questions:

- 1. Would you say that the gospel is driving your theological vision for ministry? Why?
- 2. How real is the threat of "unspoken agendas" in your eldership team? Do you feel that the focus of your team is sharp?
- 3. Can you identify whether issues like "maintaining tradition", "pleasing certain members", "micro-managing church activities" or "trying to survive" play an inordinately large role in your eldership ministry? Which ones are they and why do they play such a large role?

Practical Questions:

- 1. If you were to look at your church's annual budget, the activities of your ministries or your location, do they show a focus on "gospel work"? Does the gospel determine your practical ministry priorities?
- 2. How can your eldership team sharpen up on asking "gospel-centred questions" at a leadership level? Does a space for asking those questions exist in your regular church council meetings?

- 3. How would you evaluate the "tone" of your church culture? Does your church reflect the dominant tones of hope, joy and thankfulness that comes from a deep-understanding of the gospel? How can a "gospel tone" be spurred on?
- 4. If you were to take into consideration all that you have discussed in this session, how healthy is your church ministry in terms of gospel-centredness? If you were to rate it between 1-10, how would it rate?
